

CONVERSATIONS with WOMEN LEADERS

If I Knew Then What I Know Now...

Every professional goes through stages of leadership development as they progress in their career, learning from successes and mistakes made along the way. Women face unique challenges as they build their careers in male-dominated fields.

Linda Berger will share what she has learned on her own leadership journey, from her start in a staff position at a university physics department to her current role as a finance executive in the energy industry.

Speaker: Linda Berger, Vice President
Finance Transformation at Direct Energy

Date: Friday, November 6, 2015
Time: 12:00-1:00 pm
Place: Offices of Global Financial Services
1330 Post Oak Blvd., middle building, free parking
2nd fl., Big Bend Conference Room
Light lunch provided ($5.00)

Murray Hill Institute-Texas is a non-profit organization dedicated to helping professional women integrate ethical standards into their personal and professional lives. The Institute affirms women in the unique role they play in promoting a more just and harmonious workplace. To learn more about Murray Hill institute, go to: <http://texas.murrayhillinstitute.org>.