WOMEN LEADERS

Commitments and Balance

Balancing work, family, friends, and other commitments is a daily challenge. Is it possible to be a good wife and mother while building a career?

Reva Ma, a financial advisor at Mass Mutual Financial Group, is passionate about her family and her career. Married and with two small children, she knows her first commitment is to care for her family. At the same time, she does not see this is an obstacle to being a success in her profession.

Join us for this Evening of Conversation and learn how one successful professional woman manages to keep it all in balance.
